The situation soon developed so far that Bismarck, who had for some time been waiting for his opportunity, made up his mind to seize the chance of sacrificing the first victim to be devoured by the hungry jaws of Germany. He therefore anticipated the Diet of Frankfort, which on December 7th, in order to satisfy public opinion, had decided to launch a Federal execution against King Christian, came to an understanding with Austria which was at first reluctant, and in accord with the Hapsburg Emperor issued his first great defiance to Europe by requiring Denmark to abrogate the law...

Reviews

This publication may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
