Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Pedagogical Seminary, Vol. 5: A Quarterly International Record of Educational Literature, Institutions and Progress; 1897-98 The explanation of these interesting and very prevalent phenomena is original and suggestive. So far as known this is the first attempt to study them in normal people. In the third and longest article (68 pages) Mr. Lancaster undertakes a comprehensive survey of the entire subject of Adolescence, its Psychology and Pedagogy. After a concise digest of previous literature upon the subject, he passes to the results of one of the most comprehensive of all the studies yet made here by the questionnaire method. Like most of the forty child-study articles already published here, and indeed more so, this abounds in statistics, and samples many typical cases. Some of the conclusions are quite new and at variance with current opinion and practice. On the whole, this article is one the most important and interesting yet printed in the Seminary. Miss Mary Louch, of the faculty of Cheltenham (Eng.) Ladies College, prints a digest of a longer, but as yet...

The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writter in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).
