India Infrastructure Report 2007: Rural Infrastructure

By 3iNetwork

Oxford University Press, New Delhi, India, 2007. Hard Cover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. First Edition. The IIR 2007, the sixth substantive report on infrastructure development in India by the 3iNetwork describes recent developments in rural infrastructure. Providing infrastructure facilities to half-a-million hamlets is a daunting task. In this context the report focuses on better governance to further improve rural infrastructure despite the diversity and constraints. The IIR 2007 analyses: effective delivery and expansion of rural infrastructure through planning, maintenance, and provisioning role of the Panchayati Raj Institutions, micro-financing, and community based organizations in providing infrastructure services action areas of Bharat Nirman Yojana where infrastructure gaps need to be addressed the National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme as a guaranteed employment provider in the rural sector financing of rural infrastructure and innovative orchestration of financial resources. policy shifts to improve rural teledensity and its impact on rural economy state of rural roads and their developmental challenges status of rural drinking water and sanitation importance of minor irrigation schemes and the need to have inter-basin water transfer devolution of power to local institutions for housing, education, and health infrastructure to achieve a more inclusive growth causes of environmental degradation and...
