His yards are now filled with Bantams only, although he keeps them exclusively for eggs for home table use. Care and time must be used in the care of any fowls and much more agreeable is the work if we have a genuine regard and admiration for the subjects of our lime and care; and who can fail to admire and feel a pride in the ownership of a brilliant flock of cunning animation, cute little tricks and gentle ways that lead its members to hover in confiding security about their keeper or perch upon his shoulder and proclaim to their mates their everlasting devotion to the cause of their master. If the Bantam breeder cannot pick up and handle at will any of his flock, the cause w. c. w. POLISU. lies in himself--not with the Bantams. The breeder for profit, sells their eggs and it is well known that the prices for Bantam eggs range as high as for any others, and a little thought will quickly indicate to any one that, other things being equal, a setting of Bantam eggs has cost less than half the cost of a setting of large eggs, hence the profit is in proportion, and when he has fowls to sell the profit is in that same ratio, as usually a first-class Bantam brings a price equal to...
