The Lord reigneth, let the earth rejoice, let the multitude of the isles be glad thereof. All holy beings in the universe rejoice in the reign of God. I heard a great voice in heaven of much people, saying, Alleluia, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth, and hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written King of Kings, and Lord of Lords. That which causes joy and praise throughout all the ranks of holy beings in heaven, should be a source of joy to all the inhabitants of the earth. This would, doubtless, be the case but for the entrance of sin into our world. But, sad as the reflection may be, the reign of God is not a source of gratitude to all the inhabitants of the earth, it is the christian alone who rejoices in the divine administration. The great mass of mankind look upon the government of God as stern,...

The best ebook I possibly read. I have gone through and I am also sure that I am going to plan to read once again later on. It has been printed in an extremely simple way which is simply after I finished reading through this ebook by which basically changed me, altered the way I really believe.
