TO CATCH A THIEF

Bruin Books, LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 302 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.8in. TO CATCH A THIEF is David Dodges most famous novel, and rightly so. Alfred Hitchcock firmly cinched its place in the annals of crime fiction by adapting it into an Academy Award winning film starring Cary Grant and Grace Kelly. The story centers on John Robie, American expatriate and skilled gymnast, who once-upon-a-time was Le Chat, the famous and elusive cat burglar who worked the South of France. The legend of Le Chat grew with each crime. Following the war, Robie retires to a quiet life in France and vows to leave his past behind. His retirement is shattered when a copy-cat burglar commits a string of robberies that puts the police on Le Chats trail again. Robie must catch the phony Le Chat before the police catch him. The Bruin Books edition of TO CATCH A THIEF is the first publication of the novel in many years and includes an introduction by Randal S. Brandt and afterword by Jean Buchanan. At last this beloved mystery is back in print. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
