

New York State Education Department Bulletin (Volume 687-688)

By University of the State of New York

General Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 58 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: . . . COMPOSITION COURSE BY GRADES First Year The introductory sections on the teaching of composition and corrective English (pages 4-19) in so far as they relate to the work of this grade, are to be considered a part of the course of study for this year. Aims Written There will be no written composition in the first year except as it is correlated with reading in word and sentence building, aside from the copying of occasional short sentences by the end of the year. Oral 1 To encourage pupils to talk freely on account of genuine interest, but always with a definite and clearly formed plan in the mind of the teacher for improving their use of language. 2 To develop distinct articulation, a pleasing tone, correct posture and freedom from selfconsciousness. 3 To make a beginning in securing the sentence sense; that is, to make...

READ ONLINE

[7.62 MB]

Reviews

This pdf can be well worth a read, and much better than other. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Your daily life span will probably be transform when you full looking over this book.

-- Roxanne Stehr

The ebook is fantastic and great. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am just effortlessly could possibly get a enjoyment of looking at a created ebook.

-- Mr. Kevin Herzog