Excerpt: .with Luis del Marmol Carvajal mentioned by Puigblanch IT It would be interesting to discover in the archives of Mexico the full account of the expose of this distinguished man, who held a responsible public trust, but who as a secret Jew remained true to his faith and his family, both of which he shielded at any risk.I Especially important are the data and facts recorded in the MS material preserved in the British Museum, notably in the so-called Documentos I-historicos de Mexico, which contain among other papers an authentic account of a convention of priests--a general council--wherein Emperor Charles V, King of Spain, and representatives of the clergy of Mexico, Guatemala and Oaxaca participated. The date of this congress is given as November, 1537. Soon afterwards, a smaller meeting of divines was held in the city of Thenuxtillan Mexico of New Spain. The...
