Man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward; therefore we all need to learn the same lesson as Paul. I have learned, he said in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content, Philippians 4. 11. Believers, especially, wish to attain to a holy equanimity in their tribulations and under the stresses caused by our increasingly secular society. In this volume we have a full exposition, by the Puritan, Thomas Watson, of the above verse of Scripture, originally preached during his ministry as rector of St Stephen s, Wallbrook, London Puritan preachers, having an eye to the practice of their hearers, built their heart-searching application of the truth upon sound biblical doctrine. This characteristic is evident in The Art of Divine Contentment; as is also the fact that Watson was the master of a terse, vigorous style and of a beauty of expression.
